

Sydney

Gadigal Country, NSW · Harbour & sightseeing focus · New South Wales, Australia

Sydney is built on the Country of the Gadigal people of the Eora Nation, whose connection to Warrane (Sydney Harbour) spans tens of thousands of years. Visiting responsibly means supporting local and Indigenous businesses, reducing your environmental footprint and engaging with authentic cultural experiences.

INDIGENOUS ART — KNOW BEFORE YOU BUY

Sydney's tourist precincts sell mass-produced items falsely marketed as Aboriginal art. This harms Aboriginal artists and communities economically. Only purchase from verified outlets: Blak Markets (Barangaroo / The Rocks), Boomalli Aboriginal Artists Co-operative, Carriageworks, or the Art Gallery of NSW Indigenous collection.

DOS AND DON'TS

DO

- ☐ Acknowledge Gadigal Country on arrival
- ☐ Use public transport — Opal card for all trips
- ☐ Take the ferry to Manly — it's part of the experience
- ☐ Wear a helmet when cycling — it's the law in NSW
- ☐ Eat and shop at local, independent businesses
- ☐ Use reef-safe sunscreen at ocean beaches
- ☐ Carry a reusable water bottle — tap water is safe
- ☐ Attend at least one Aboriginal-led experience
- ☐ Respect beach safety flags at all times
- ☐ Shop at Blak Markets for authentic Aboriginal art

DO NOT

- ☐ Default to tourist restaurants near major landmarks
- ☐ Hire a car for city sightseeing — unnecessary
- ☐ Cycle without a helmet — on-the-spot fines apply
- ☐ Purchase Aboriginal art without verifying authenticity
- ☐ Swim outside flagged areas at ocean beaches
- ☐ Leave litter on beaches or in harbour areas
- ☐ Take rideshare for short trips — walk, cycle or ferry
- ☐ Feed harbour wildlife (ibis, seagulls, fish)
- ☐ Book inauthentic Aboriginal souvenir experiences
- ☐ Book large coach tours for harbour sightseeing

SUSTAINABLE TRANSPORT

Ferry to Manly: 30 mins from Circular Quay — scenic and sustainable.
Airport to CBD by train: 13 minutes. Harbour Bridge crossing by bike:
car-free cycle path available.

BEACH & HARBOUR SAFETY

Always swim between the red and yellow flags at ocean beaches. Rip currents are common and can be life-threatening. If caught in a rip, float and signal for help — do not swim against it.
